Homes Not Borders helps newly resettled refugees through collecting donations for them and then helping refugees with household items and furnishing, along with providing the with job training in carpentry and career mentorships for corporate jobs.

First Program Service Accomplishments Description

Description

saving them a total of $140,000 (or saving individual refugees approximately $380). Homes Not Borders also collected donated furniture and household items from 130 donors. And not only did we support new refugees but we also passed along many of these donations to recently resettled refugees in need of additional items. We also set up a carpentry workshop space in anticipation of starting our carpentry training program at the beginning of 2020.
